

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES/HIPAA

Effective February 1, 2011

THIS DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice describes the practices of EJJ Associates LLC, dba Reprise (Reprise) and the practices that will be followed by all of Reprise associates who handle your medical information. Reprise understands that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting medical information about you. We maintain our records and conduct our services with a goal of providing the highest level of protection for your medical information, while still providing you with the highest level of care.

This Notice applies to all of the records of your medical information which are received or created by Reprise. Your medical treatment providers (e.g., doctors, hospitals, home health agencies, etc.) may have different policies or notices regarding the use and disclosure of your medical information. This notice will tell you about the ways in which Reprise may use and disclose medical information about you. Your medical information, also referred to as "protected health information," is that information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health information and related health care services.

In this Notice, we also describe your rights and certain obligations Reprise has regarding the use and disclosure of your protected health information. We are required by law to: make sure that medical and other information that identifies you (protected health information) is kept private; give you this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information about you; follow the terms of the Notice that is currently in effect.

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS

By utilizing Reprise, you are giving consent for Reprise to use your protected health information for certain activities, including recovery care assistance, payment and other health care operations. We may use and disclose protected health information about you so that Reprise and its affiliates can care for you.

For example, we may use your past medical information in order to understand your present condition or we may provide information regarding your medical condition to another doctor who may be involved in your care. We may also use and disclose protected health information about you so that we may be paid for the recovery care we provide you. We may also use and disclose protected health information about you for Reprise health care operations, in other words, those other tasks that we need to perform to make sure that you are provided the highest quality of care. For example, we may use your protected health information to evaluate how we can better meet your needs or we may provide protected health information about you to an auditor who reviews our books so that we can keep our license to provide services in California.

OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

The following uses of your protected health information may be made without any additional authorization from you. Not every use or disclosure is listed, but be assured that all uses and disclosures made by Reprise are only those which are pertinent to delivering the highest quality of service including, but not limited to accommodation facilities such as transportation providers, home health care agencies or any other service providers including, but not limited to spa and massage service providers, etc.

Please note that we book rooms with several hotels in the area for your use, however, all of them are not in any way affiliated with, associated with, or otherwise connected with Reprise and, further, do not and will not provide any medical or nursing care whatsoever; rather, all such care is provided solely by Reprise. Please understand that the information that is disclosed to any third party by us, including hotels, transportation providers or any home health care agency or other service providers, (including but not limited to spa and massage service providers, etc.), is not and will not be protected under HIPPA.

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR APPOINTMENT REMINDERS

We may use and disclose your medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have a reservation. If you request that such communications be made confidentially, please contact us at Reprise and we shall accommodate you to the best of our ability.

USES AND DISCLOSURES TO OTHERS INVOLVED IN YOUR HEALTH CARE

We may disclose to a member of your family, a relative, a close friend, or any other person you identify, your protected health information that directly relates to that person's involvement in your care. If you are unable to agree or object to this disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interests based on our professional judgment. We may also use or disclose protected health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or any other person that is responsible for your care of your location, general condition, or death. Finally, we may use or disclose your protected health information to an authorized public or private entity to assist in disaster relief efforts and to coordinate uses and disclosures to family or other individuals involved in your care.

USES AND DISCLOSURES IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

We may use or disclose your protected health information in an emergency treatment situation. If this happens, Reprise will attempt to obtain your acknowledgment of this Notice as soon as reasonably practicable after the delivery of treatment.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES/HIPAA

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR HEALTH-RELATED BENEFITS OR SERVICES

Reprise may use and disclose protected health information to tell you about certain health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

USES AND DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY LAW

We will use or disclose protected health information about you when required to do so by federal, state, or local law. The use or disclosure will be made in compliance with the law and will be limited to the relevant requirements of the law. You will be notified, if the law requires us to do so, of any such uses or disclosures. We must make disclosures to you and when required by the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the law.

USES AND DISCLOSURES FOR PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES

We may disclose your protected health information for public health activities and disclosure for such purposes will be to a public health authority that is permitted by law to collect or receive the information. The disclosure will be made for purposes such as controlling disease, injury or disability. Disclosures to public health authorities may include disclosure to a foreign authority that is working with the public health authority.

USES AND DISCLOSURES RELATED TO COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

We may disclose your protected health information, if authorized by law, to a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or may otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading the disease or condition.

DISCLOSURES FOR HEALTH OVERSIGHT ACTIVITIES

We may disclose protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These activities include, for example, audits, investigations, and inspections. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, the delivery of health care, government benefit programs, other government regulatory programs and civil rights laws.

DISCLOSURES OF ABUSE OR NEGLECT

We may disclose your protected health information to a public health authority authorized by law to receive reports of child abuse or neglect. In addition, we may disclose your protected health information if we believe that you have been a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to a governmental entity or agency authorized to receive such information. In such cases, the disclosure will only be made in accordance with California law.

DISCLOSURES TO THE FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

We may disclose your protected health information to a person or company required by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to: report adverse events, product defects or other problems, biologic product deviations, track products; to enable product recalls; to make repairs or replacements; or to conduct post-market surveillance, as required.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES/HIPAA

DISCLOSURES FOR LAWSUITS AND DISPUTES

If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose protected health information about you in response to a court order or administrative order. We may also disclose protected health information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

DISCLOSURES TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

We may release protected health information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official, in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons, or similar process. Other related disclosures may include disclosures relating to individuals who are Armed Forces personnel, to national security and intelligence agencies, as well as disclosures to authorized federal officials for the protection of the President of the United States or other authorized persons or foreign heads of state.

DISCLOSURES TO CORONERS, FUNERAL DIRECTORS, AND ORGAN DONATION

We may disclose protected health information about you to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, determining cause of death or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties required by law. We may also disclose protected health information about you to a funeral director in order to permit the funeral director to carry out legal duties, and may do so if death is reasonably anticipated. Your protected health information may also be disclosed for certain organ donations to which you may have agreed.

DISCLOSURES FOR RESEARCH

We may disclose your protected health information to researchers when their research has been approved and protocols have been established to ensure the privacy of your information. We may also disclose a limited set of your information, as allowed under the law, for research purposes.

DISCLOSURES RELATED TO CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

We may disclose your protected health information, consistent with federal and California laws, if we believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious or imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, or if it is necessary for law enforcement authorities to identify or apprehend an individual.

DISCLOSURES FOR WORKERS' COMPENSATION

We may release protected health information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES/HIPAA

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy protected health information that may be used to make decisions about your medical care. Usually this right includes both medical and billing records. You must submit your request in writing. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. Your request to inspect and copy your information may only be denied in very limited circumstances and you have a right to request that any such denial be reviewed.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request that we restrict the use and disclosure of your protected health information for recovery care assistance, payment and health care operations. We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency care. To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to: Reprise. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure, or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

Right to Confidential Communications.

You also have the right to request to receive private health information communications. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail. To request confidential communications, you must make your request known to Reprise and we will accommodate you to the best of our ability. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

Right to Amend. If you feel that the protected health information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to request that your protected health information be amended. Only the entity (e.g., recovery facility, doctor, hospital, clinic, etc.) that created your protected health information is responsible for amending it. For more information regarding the procedures for submitting such a request, contact Reprise.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have a right to an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information, for purposes other than recovery care assistance, payment or health care operations by Reprise or any of the people or companies who perform recovery care assistance, payment or health care operations on our behalf. To request this list of disclosures we made of protected health information about you, you must submit a request in writing to: Reprise. Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than one year prior to the date of your request and may not include dates before August 1, 2008. You may be required to pay for such disclosures.

Right to a paper copy of this notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this Notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. You may print a copy of this Notice, or you may request a paper copy of this Notice, contact: Reprise.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We reserve the right to change this notice, and the revised or changed Notice will be effective for protected health information we already have about you, as well as any information we create or receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current Notice on our website at www.reprisepostop.com and guests may print this out at any time.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES/HIPAA

COMPLAINTS

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated and/or that Reprise has not followed this policy, you may file a complaint with Reprise or with the Department of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

OTHER USES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Other uses and disclosures of your protected health information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to Reprise, will be made only with your written permission ("authorization"). If you provide us permission to use or disclose protected health information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose protected health information about you for the reasons covered by your authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the recovery care assistance or other services that we have provided to you.
